

Riddling at home!

Ideas for Carers/Parents

You'll find it easier if you cut out the bits before you start!

1) As a fun way in, have a game of 'Twenty Questions'. (One player chooses a secret person, place or thing. The others can only ask a maximum of 20 questions to work it out). If you have difficulty thinking of a thing, use the 'My favourite things' sheet at the end of this pack to prompt ideas).

2) Give out the cut up Q&As (below). Can your child match them up? Afterwards ask them what clues/words helped them and what was difficult.

 What has a face and two hands but no arms or legs?	 A clock
 What has a thumb and four fingers but is not alive?	 A glove
 What has to be broken before you can use it?	 An egg
 What has a neck but no head?	 A bottle

What's next? Show your child the top half of the next page. Can they guess the answer? If not, help by asking questions. What's warm? What gets up in they morning? etc.

A riddle for you...

I am warm but I'm not alive.
When I get up in the morning
I can be beautiful, but please don't stare.
I am shy and disappear at night.

What am I?

Answer

Why don't you...?

Think of your favourite thing. (If you can't think of one, there are some ideas on the next page). Imagine you are that thing. What can you see? What can you feel? What do you do? What do you like?

You can use sentences such as:

- I look like...
- I sound like...
- You find me...
- I have...
- I am...
- I feel...

When you write a riddle...

- Don't use the thing's name. That would make it too easy!
- Keep your riddle short, no longer than eight lines.
- Remember: riddles don't have to rhyme.
- Test it on a friend and see how difficult they find it!

Ask an adult to send your riddle to us. We'll publish the best on the p-arts website. Email: info@p-arts.co.uk
